

WHO WE ARE

The Art Institutes www.artinstitutes.edu is a system of private schools located throughout the United States. The Art Institutes schools are an important source of design, media arts, fashion and culinary professionals.

Each Art Institutes school is licensed by the state in which it is located and is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges*.

The Art Institutes are approved for the training of veterans and eligible veterans' dependents to utilize U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs education benefits and participates in the Yellow Ribbon Program for all eligible Post 9/11 GI Bill® recipients. The Art Institutes system of schools has also signed the Memorandum of Understanding with the Department of Defense, allowing military members to utilize tuition assistance. We value the service of our military members and veterans and offer institutional scholarships to those eligible.

WHAT WE DO

The Art Institutes schools offer associate, bachelor, and master's degree programs, as well as certificate and diploma programs.

Students pursue their degrees through campus-based and hybrid classroom/virtual learning.

The Art Institutes focus on applied arts in creative areas such as graphic design, media arts and animation, culinary arts, photography, digital filmmaking and video production, interior design, audio production, fashion design, game art and design, baking and pastry, and fashion marketing.

Not all program areas and degree levels are offered at all schools.

In addition, The Art Institutes sponsor a variety of competitions each year focused on fashion design, graphic design, film, and culinary.
