Undocumented Individuals

The following is added to the catalog on page 111 immediately following the section titled International Student Admissions Policy:

Undocumented Individuals

At The Art Institutes, we define individuals who reside in the U.S. without legal status as undocumented individuals. Students who do not have the necessary documentation proving U.S. Citizenship, Permanent Residence or other non-immigrant statuses may apply to The Art Institute. The student must provide an official copy of a high school transcript or GED equivalency, and also meet all eligibility requirements for their requested program of study. Undocumented students are not eligible for federal financial aid.
